BG Commission To Push For Negro Teen' Center

BELLE GLADE — A delegation of about 50 leaders of Belle Glade's Negro community appeared at Wednesday night's City Commission meeting to plea for quick action to obtain a "badly needed" teenage community center.

After an hour-long discussion with delegation leaders and other members of the audience, the commission voted to take immediate action to provide the teenage center on either a temporary or permanent basis.

VANDEGRIFT IS C of C PREXY

PAHOKEE — Roy Vandegrift Jr. was elected new president of the Pahokee Chamber of Commerce at a meeting attended by members of the group's board of directors Tuesday night at the new Civic Center.

Long a civic leader and an outstanding produce figure in the area, Vandegrift is one of the leading officials in the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association. He recently testified in the Florida East Coast Railway hearing in West Palm Beach, contesting the desires of Atlantic Coast Line Railroad to take over the bankrupt FEC holdings.

Charles Batchelor was elected vice president of the chamber. Re-elected were Mrs. Alma W. Farrow, secretary; Mrs. Clark Hull Wilkinson, treasurer; and Mrs. Mae Pope, executive secretary.

Muck City Road Is Delayed

WEST PALM BEACH — A delay in returning right of way papers and completion of a railroad crossing agreement with the state, is holding up start of construction on Muck City Road in the Everglades, the county commission learned Monday.

The board learned from County Engineer Steve Middleton that a contract for the road has already been awarded but that delay in completing right of way between the state and the U.S. Sugar Corporation is holding up start of construction. Also pending is the state's outlining of a railroad agreement.

In another action on Glades projects, the board this week took bids on sale of the old county barn site at Belle Glade and put a minimum price of $2,500 on the land.

The board also learned that bids has been let for construction of a National Guard Armory at Belle Glade. The commission voted to extend all cooperation possible in completion of the project.

LIONS HEAR TALK BY FORMER AIR FORCE MAN

PAHOKEE — Leland Shirley, a former Air Force man, gave a tour of duty with the Air Force, was guest speaker at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Lions Club.

After an introduction by James Harry Wilkinson Jr., Mr. Shirley spoke on his work in the Air Force and discussed different airplane classifications, illustrating his talk with slides of planes now in use.

You'll find the person who gets fed up easily with those who continue to take ungodly large doses of himself.

A TON OF CAKE? YEP, GARDENERS ON SECOND TON

PAHOKEE — More than a ton of fruit makes up the first five pre-holiday sales, during the arrival of a set of twins just about sales time interrupted by Mrs. W.A. Keen, who hopes the cakes will be dropped to 73¢.

This year's finance chairman and cake sales head — is Mrs. W.A. Keen, who hopes the cakes will be dropped to 73¢. Reason for the Garden Club's all-out effort to push cake sales is that they use profits therefrom to beautify Pahokee.

Among their projects of beautification are these five: the new Civic Center, grounds at Everglades Memorial Hospital, Loxora Park (on Bacon Point Rd.), and City Park.

According to Mrs. Keen, cakes can be ordered either in the 3-lb. or 5-lb. size, at $1.05 per lb., and you can have your 5-lb cake delivered in a fancy tin

'BOAT-A-GLADE' — Was staged last weekend, with Belle Glade the terminus for some 600 motorboat enthusiasts who traveled down the Inland Waterway, St. Lucie Canal and Lake Okechobee in some 250 boats. Scene above shows boaters in their tent camp pitched at Port of Belle Glade. Civic groups went all-out in entertaining their guests from all parts of the state.

WATER, WATER EVERYWHERE — Pahokee Boy Scouts tried a raft-a-cade expedition down the Kissimmee river last week, but had to postpone their tour when the flood-swollen river churned up bothersome currents.

Scouts Ply Mighty Kissimmee But Flood Waters Stop 'Em

PAHOKEE — Boy Scouts of Troop 28 wish, the Kissimmee River would make up its mind whether to be placid or unruly, so they can finally complete the raft-a-cade down its meandering course.

The Scouts postponed their scheduled trip down the river from Fort Bassinger bridge to Lake Okechobee several weeks ago when the water level was down.

Last weekend, with the help of R. B. Simpson and Hugo Roe along with Scoutmasters Ed Carver and Louis Mims, they launched five rafts for the bridge for a one-day-a-lifetime expedition.

But the Kissimmee waters, swollen by floods upstream, sprang wilder and yon. It was impossible to determine exactly where the river bed was, and eddies swirling in whip-stitch fashion made orderly downstream drifting well nigh impossible.

So, five miles downstream from the bridge, they came upon the site of the original Fort Basinger, and put in for an overnight stay with Mr. and Mrs.

container for gift purposes at an extra fifty cents. And, you have your choice of either light or dark cakes.

Actually, the cakes are cooked up Georgia way by commercial bakers who specialize in fruit cakes. Delivery is made by Garden Club members, however.

Mrs. Lloyd Hundley, Garden Club president, hopes a new wrinkle in preserving cakes — deep-freezing them — will result in additional sales.

"I put a cake in the deep-freeze last year," Mrs. Hundley said, "and just recently took it out to serve. It was in perfect condition."

So, maybe Glades residents are in for some year-round fruit cake eating. If so, they must phone their orders in by next Thursday to Mrs. Keen at 2242 or to Mrs. Hundley at 7212. Or, you can place your orders with any Garden Club member.

TUCKER IS BG CHAMBER HEAD

BELLE GLADE — Russell E. Tucker was elected president of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce at a dinner meeting held Tuesday at the Country Club.

Other officers elected were S. A. Smith Jr., vice president; Marvin Unwin, treasurer; and Mrs. Edwina Young, executive secretary.

New directors of the chamber board, introduced by R. E. Hotard, were Vernie Boots, Tucker, Dale Ellis and V. C. Mulberg.

The meeting was presided over by Ed Levy. Mrs. Young reported that nine membership renewals have brought the chamber's individual membership roll to a total of 186.

Dale Ellis, who was chairman of the local Boat-a-cade committee, reported that the extravaganza was a success and that efforts would be made to again host the touring motor boaters.

The chamber went on record as officially endorsing the county school bond issue to be voted on in the Nov. 6 election.

Cattle Sales Back Up At BG Market

BELLE GLADE — Cattle sales were up in volume Monday at Glades Livestock Market, with 1,025 head sold for a total of $39,168.38, according to George C. Young, manager. Sixty-seven percent went to slaughter.

Young said prices generally were steady, with standard slaughter steers bringing 50 cents per cwt. more than a week earlier. Sale summary:

Gals Get Violets From CP Lions

CANAL POINT — Women guests of the Canal Point Lions Club were each presented with a violet by the club's annual Ladies Night banquet.

Also honored were teachers at Canal Point School, who were introduced by Principal Carl Crawford. The affair was held at the Community Building.

President O. H. Sheppard presided over the meeting, and Program Chairman Cecelia Upthegrove introduced a vocal trio from Pahokee high school consisting of Valerie Geiger, Linda Sellers and Anita Cowart, who were accompanied by Glenda Faye Russon, pianist.

Buddy Schoenfeld of Belle Glade, deputy district Lions governor, inducted Mack L. Barfield into Lion membership.

Kids, Parents Get Ready For Halloween Fun-Time

With Halloween coming along next Wednesday evening, Glades residents this week were putting the final touches on community-sponsored festivities to channel youth activities from the negative to the positive — the hallowed eve of witches, goblins and animated pumpkins.

Most Glades community Parent-Teacher Associations are sponsoring Halloween activities, with proceeds to go toward better school programs within their communities.

NO QUORUM ... NO MEETING!

PAHOKEE — Opening of bids for a new police cruiser and fire department paraphernalia was delayed along with other official city business when the City Council was unable to convene Monday night because of lack of a quorum.

Only Council President George Tucker Jr. and Councilman Edgar Wilder were present, as the meeting was postponed until next Monday night.

Councilmen Mrs. Blanche Armstrong and John Hutton were absent because of illness, as was Mayor F. S. Parrish.

One of the largest audiences in recent times was heard at the Monday meeting, which was postponed at the stroke of 8 p. m.

Elks Hold Benefit Halloween Ball

PAHOKEE — For years the state's crippled children have received miraculous treatment at the ballroom of the Elks Lodge No. 1638, for them by Elks Lodges throughout Florida.

It costs the state about $120,000 each year to support the home — about $5.45 per hospitalized child per day. Quota for Pahokee Elks Lodge No. 1638 is about $700 per year.

So, Saturday night, the Pahokee Elks will mix obligations with pleasure in promoting a benefit Halloween Costume Ball, which will begin at their club-house at 10 p. m. Admission will be $5 per couple, with proceeds going to Harry-Anna.

A good orchestra has been obtained for the Ball, and prizes and costume prizes will be awarded. A good time will be had by all, Elks say, with unfurling the children the beneficiaries.

Among area residents who have first-hand knowledge and appreciation of the work accomplished by the Harry-Anna Home is Mrs. J. H. Wilkinson Sr. of Pahokee, whose grand-daughter suffered an attack of polio 11 years ago.

Mrs. Wilkinson, this week recalling the treatment of her little girl at Harry-Anna, termed the Elks' work with crippled children "heavenly help."

The little grand-daughter, now Charlene Adams, now Mrs. W. C. McLemore of Panama City, Fla., was given three operations at Harry-Anna.

Mrs. Wilkinson says, and as a result now is able to live a normal adult life.

The Elk-sponsored home has orthopedic, pediatric, dental and surgical services available for children and maintains a school for the 75 daily patients.

NEW WESTERN UNION HRS.

The Western Union office in Pahokee resumes its seasonal hours next Thursday when it will be open from 8 a. m. to 11 p. m. daily.

Joseph Merritt of Laurel, Miss., will be an assistant operator until Dec. 1, and will train a replacement for Mrs. Betty Connell, who is now operating a nursery.

The fellow who brags about being self-made, has little else to show for his efforts.

THE FEAST OF HALLOWMAS

Glades business places are reported to be well-stocked with treats-for-sale so residents can withstand any Halloween onslaught by the modern-day "trick-or-treat" youngsters.

No doubt Glades kids will have a good job of hiding their identity in donning costume of characters of the eerie-wo-wo. But will Glades youngsters familiarize themselves with the true origin of Halloween? Well, maybe . . .

Halloween is actually All Hallows' Eve, the name applied to the evening of Oct. 31, preceding the Christian Feast of All Saints, All Hallows, or Saint's Day.

Originally, the ancient-age Druids lit great fires on Halloween, apparently for the purpose of warding off evil spirits. This led ultimately to the concept of ghosts and witches, which still are part of modern Halloween lore.

A. Stevens, who live on the site.

Under the direction of Wayne Boynton, the Scouts entertained their hosts with a campfire program, and held an open-air worship service on Sunday morning.

The Stevens agreed to keep guard over the rafts — until the Kissimmee recedes and the boys can return to complete their journey.

CURRENTLY

We're still waiting for canines to pop up in the news to play a role of some sort in the presidential election. Remember Nixon's dog in the '52 race, FDR's "Fido"? Dogs as such were absent in the '48 election, but a couple of fellows named Tom and Harry did plenty of snarling at each other.

— PED —

Speaking of elections, will this be the last big election in Palm Beach County in which Democrats have little opposition? Increasing population in the coastal cities, plus the influx of northern personnel at Pratt & Whitney, could mean a large increase of Republicans before 1960.

— PED —

Financial means can't be found to pay for a Glades access road to Pratt & Whitney? Nonpareil State is collecting an average of $1 million per day from taxpayers; $45 million more in taxes was realized last year over the previous year. Increased population accounted for $12 million of the extra income.

— PED —

BY WIN PENDLETON

HOW IS THE ELECTION GOING? That is the question. Everywhere we go, it is still ringing in our ears after spending a week in Ohio and Pennsylvania. The strange thing about the question is that folks seem to think the answer will come from Washington. We think the answer lies with the people.

Here in the nation's capital, the best answer we can get is the reflected opinion of a mass of hopeful politicians — who either are trying to get in office or trying to stay in office. Away from Washington, you are able to find out what the voters are thinking — or at least some of them. And if there is one thing we think we have learned on our recent question-asking trips it's this: people to day vote in national elections the way they "feel" and not because of the way they live or because of any party.

There's always some of that. But, the trend is growing. It is becoming a national pattern. Radio and television ads travel seem to be chiefly responsible.

Only Georgia, among the states we have visited, seem to cling to the old outlook. There, the Democratic party is still the final word. In Alabama, there's a young fellow "dances" run for Congress as a Republican, he is looked on as something of a freak.

Even in Georgia, the nearest thing to a 100% Democratic State, one-third of the voters went along with General Eisenhower in 1952. And he'll get a big vote again this time.

From this trend in voting comes a new pattern. Where can we look for a political thermometer? Where can we find the "average voter"? Florida might well be the best spot. While some pollsters chase themselves around the farm belt and the industrial areas and the "middle-west" and the "farwest," they should look in the direction of the nation's fruit basket for the answer.

The folks in Florida come from all parts of the country. They bring their old politics with them. They mix it up with their new friends and neighbors from other parts of the country. But, they still keep in touch with "back home." Their sons and daughters and their sisters and brothers visit. Most of these transplanted people subscribe to their home-town newspaper — and follow with interest the politics where they came from.

Although Florida really isn't much of a two-party state yet, it may already be the nation's "political dip-stick." So, look around you if you want to know how the election is going. May be the old saying, "As Maine goes, so goes the nation" will be forgotten when people learn that for President, Florida sets the trend. And of course we would know the real answer until Nov. 7th.

Need Beef Improvement To Put More Lbs. On Hoof

BY SPUDS JOHNSON

There is danger that those interested in livestock production in Florida will do so much talking about the fine progress that has been made in the last two decades that they will forget about the problems still facing the industry and the progress yet crying to be made. We have won some laurels, but must not rest on them. Instead, we must seek the larger and more important goals that are still ahead.

Here are some of the unsatisfactory features about Florida's livestock industry. Animal husbandmen with the State Agricultural Extension Service call attention to them in connection with plans for their work.

On Jan. 1, Florida ranked 31st in total numbers of beef cattle, but was 31st in live weight production of cattle and calves. Our cattle simply are not as big as those in other states yet. Average live weight of slaughter cattle in Florida is 756 pounds, in the United States 941 pounds.

This state also ranked 12th in number of graves and heifers of breeding age, yet our calf crop percentage is lowest in the United States. U.S. Department of Agriculture statistics show Florida's calf crop percentage as 68, but practical cattlemen believe it is nearer 65 percent. On a little more than half the cows in breeding herds drop calves each year.

What can the producer do to improve these and other averages? The Extension Service animal husbandmen believe that more and better feed and better sanitation will materially improve the lots of cattle raisers. They point out that there are 1,754,000 beef and dairy cattle in Florida, and the state has only 1,600,000 acres of improved pasture. There is less than an acre of improved pasture for each animal, and many animals are trying to gather a living off of unimproved native pasture. Small wonder, then, that the calf crop is low and the animals are small.

Parasites still exact a tremendous toll from Florida cattle. For instance, this state takes a high share of the nation's billion dollar annual loss to diseases and internal parasites of cattle, as well as the half billion dollar annual tribute to external parasites.

More feeds, better sanitation, larger calf crops, adequate equipment for handling livestock, and better quality animals can and will bring still more improvement to Florida's livestock industry in the next few years.

POULTRY FARMING IS FFA STUDY TOPIC

Belle Glade chapter of Future Farmers of America heard county representatives talk Tuesday night on the feasibility of growing and selling poultry as a vocation.

A film was shown explaining procedures of growing poultry and making profits from selling eggs. Reports were given by boys who represented the chapter at various summer conventions. The chapter plans a camping trip to Fishbeating Creek over the Thanksgiving holidays.

All-Out Drive On School Issue

Parent-Teacher Association and Junior Chamber of Commerce units throughout Palm Beach County are making plans for an all-out drive to set a new record for heavy voting in the Nov. 6 election, according to Joe Blank of West Palm Beach, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Better Schools.

Committees being set up in each precinct in the county will provide "Vote-mobile" transportation to the polls on election day, in connection with a special effort to get wives to the polls during the morning hours.

Members of PTA units will cover the lists of registered voters by telephone with reminders to vote early. Special emphasis will be placed on voting of Freeholders in the school bond election, to provide necessary construction funds in all parts of the county.

Jay Cees are organizing a set of telephone dispatching crews in each precinct covered by their units, and members of the PTA will furnish cars and drivers to take the voters to the polls.

THREE NURSES ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

Miss Jane Plumer and Miss Margaret Mary Cook, nurses with the County Public Health Department in Pahokee, attended the state public health convention at Clearwater last weekend.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Margaret C. Byrnes, a registered nurse from the state health department assigned to the Pahokee area. She was formerly an instructor on the staff of Rutgers University in New Jersey.

"It's a lot better to allow some extra time for acting sane when you drive . . . and you'll reach your final destination that way a lot, lot slower," says Col. H. N. Kirkman of the Florida Highway Patrol.

THE TEENAGERS

By Douglas Gillis and Ronnie Hitchcock

Our hopes of a football championship have gone down the drain. The breaks just took a turn for the worst last Friday night when Lake Worth toppled over Pahokee 19-0. On behalf of the seniors we wish to thank everyone for showing up at the dance afterwards.

Junior's faces have lighted up . . . it must be because of ordering their class rings. And another reason must be that the parts for the junior class play. We all wish them the best of luck. This column is thinking of sponsoring a teenager-of-the-week and if we do you better hold your chin up high and work hard because it might be you.

The Teenagers' top records of the week are "Chains of Love" sung by Pat Boone, and "Love Me Tender" by Elvis Presley. What is this rumor about Elvis being in town last Saturday? Personally we don't think it was because several people told us it was some hillbillies in an older model Cadillac. But we must admit one part of the rumor was true — they were from Memphis, Tenn.

See yall soon,

"During the 1955-56 growing season I used Dithane M-22 exclusively on over 1000 acres of tomatoes. Disease control was excellent... In spite of generally poor growing conditions my overall average yield was 350 field boxes per acre, which was highly satisfactory under the year's conditions."

JOHN W. CAMPBELL, John W. Campbell Farms Co., Gaults, Florida

"We have used Dithane on tomatoes and several other crops... more than 10 years... For our last three tomato crops we have used a lot of Dithane M-22 and are very pleased with the disease control it gave us. Fruit quality has been superior, and all things considered, I believe Dithane M-22 is the outstanding tomato fungicide available today."

LOYD D. WITT, Witt Bros., Fort Pierce, Florida

There's no argument anywhere about the value of DITHANE M-22 for overall tomato disease control. About the only difference is that some prefer spray powder—others blended dusts available from your local dealer. Either way, this maneb fungicide helps you get lush, rich green foliage and outstanding yields.

His school, too, is busting out all over!

Growing . . . growing! . . . growing! In a word, that's what's happening to Palm Beach County school enrollment. Our schools are already bursting at the seams because of the unprecedented rise in enrollments (26,000 now, 17 percent higher than last year, and expected to hit 36,000 at winter season peak). Throughout the county, there has been a 100 percent enrollment increase in eight years.

We're short 120 classrooms in the county RIGHT NOW. Some of our schools are already on double sessions, just to make sure each child has a place to sit. By Christmas more than 2,000 students will be forced to the two-shift system, and almost all classes will be crowded beyond normal capacity.

The freeholders of Palm Beach County will decide November 6, by voting on the school bond issue, whether our children are to continue to "bust out all over" our crowded schools.

Here! New Task-Force 57 Chevrolet Trucks!

Performance-proved in a history-making test on the ALCAN Highway to Alaska

The Alcan Highway is the road where trucks grow old before their time. The road where gravel endlessly sledgemen the life out of trucks. Where a fog of superfine dust chokes engines, and vicious rust subject chassis to months of wear in a few hundred miles.

Six new '57 Chevrolet trucks, representing light-, medium- and heavy-duty models and heavily loaded with cargo, roared north from Dawson Creek, B. C., through 1,520 miles of mountains and mire, rain and hail to Fairbanks, Alaska. Running around the clock, they made this tortuous trip—normally a 72-hour run—in less than 45 hours. The fleet made normal stops along the way, and maintained safe and legal speeds. As a special test during the run, two of the trucks went the entire distance without once having their engines stopped!

It's all down in the AAA record book. And more besides! Never before has a new truck been so thoroughly proved. Come in and see how well these new Alcan champs measure up to your job.

FIRST WITH THE MOST MODERN FEATURES!

New 283-cubic-inch Taskmaster V8 delivers 160 high-torque horsepower. Standard in Series 5000, 7000 and 8000, optional in Series 6000 at extra cost. Horsepower ranges up to 210 in Chevrolet's complete line-up of modern V8 and 6 truck engines.

Revolutionary Powermatic Transmission - exclusive with Chevrolet trucks! This six-speed automatic, designed specifically for heavy-duty hauling, is an extra-cost option in Series 5000 and 6000 and all heavy-duty truck models. Hydra-Matic is offered in 3000 and 4000 Series models at extra cost.

New 1957 work-styling gives Chevrolet trucks an even fresher, fleetier appearance. There are three different and distinctive styling treatments.

L.C.F. models outdate the C.O.E. because they're lower, handsomer, easier to get into and out of, and save time in routine engine maintenance. Yet they offer all the traditional C.O.E. advantages.

Heavyweight Champs with Triple-Torque tandem are rated at 32,000 lbs. GVW, 50,000 lbs. GCW. And Chevrolet's advanced tandem axle unit offers a built-in three-speed power divider—plus a unique "self-steering" action that reduces tire wear and increases handling ease.

Alcan fleet gets up to 18.17 miles per gallon! That's the mileage reported by the Cameo Carrier, with Thrifmaster 6 and extra-cost drive.

All the way in DRIVE range! This Powermatic-equipped 10000 Series tractor traveled the entire Alcan Highway in a single forward-speed range!
